At present writing it looks as if Cleveland would be renominated by acclamation, and that the democratic party will go into the campaign of 1888 with a united front. We hold ourselves in readiness to cheerfully accept the nomination, and promise to make a rousing campaign.

No citizen is allowed to act as employe of the GAZETTE who is found using any of our accounts.

Advertisements in the Weekly Gazette will be inserted for one month for the price charged for one week.

The appointment of General Beale to the Mexican mission seems to have given general satisfaction. It is stated that he intends to make a very active effort to bring about a closer relation between the commercial interests of both countries.

The pronounced vote by which the national board of trade convention adopted a resolution in favor of a government postal telegraph, should have a strong influence in influencing legislation on this important subject.

The prohibitionists can find reason for satisfaction in the passage by the Massachusetts senate of the constitutional prohibition amendment. This will partially fill the defeats which the cause sustained in Oregon, Texas and Atlanta.

Both the Nicholls and McEnery factions of the democratic party in Louisiana have declared that the approaching election in that state will be conducted fairly and honestly, and that every republican will be allowed to vote and have his vote counted. If the election is conducted on these principles republican success is almost assured in Louisiana.

An eastern paper states that an open rupture has occurred between the president and Senator Gorman, of Maryland, over some Maryland appointments. As Mr. Gorman's solicitation Eugene Higgins resigned his position as appointment clerk in the treasury department, and was defeated for a subordinate position by the Maryland legislature. Mr. Gorman's anti-position may be worth more to Mr. Cleveland than his support before the nominating convention.

Chairman Hill of New York is making a splendid record as an anti-civil service reformer. He recently dismissed all the members of the state board of civil service examiners and has nominated as their successors men who are not at all in sympathy with the cause of civil service reform. The members of the old board, who were appointed by Mr Cleveland during his term as governor of the state, were men of ability and learning, and were strongly in favor of a strict construction of the civil service law.

During the past few weeks there have been reports circulated among eastern papers to the effect that the protection wing of the democratic party was forming a coalition against the renomination of President Cleveland. The prominent leaders in this movement are said to be Senators Gorman of Maryland, and Eustis of Louisiana, Governor Hill of New York and Colonel Lamont. The object of the coalition is to nominate Mr. Hill for the presidency. Governor Hill is said to have expressed his support in favor of that gentleman. The movement is designed to represent the strength of the high tariff element in the democratic party. Between Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Randall the two would be unmistakably defined. Both are able men, and the contest would be one of principles—that the party would come out of the contest stronger, there is little question. It might lose the election, but it would be definitely committed to a policy. At present it is practically a party without a policy, though President Cleveland has made a manly effort to commit his party to tariff reform. If this contest should take place the question of tariff reform or Mr. Randall would be defeated. But strange as low by his defeat for the speakership a few years ago. He is now a Democratic leader, and has a following which he has few of the republicans for a presidential candidate. But the democrats are their usual proportion of foolishness and would be quite as likely to nominate Randall as Cleveland. Randall is a good deal of an opportunist, and the democratic party would be glad to get rid of the tariff issue, and that is why Randall is more likely to be nominated than Cleveland.

JUDGE WAXEM GRIEVED.

HE WAS NOT MADE CHAIRMAN OF ANY COMMITTEE.

He Smothered His Indignation at Not Being Made Speaker, but the Second Oversight Is Too Much, and He Considers Himself Grossly Insulted.

Special Telegram to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—[SPECIAL.]—Quite a number of leading democrats in the house and senate have spoken to me upon the subject of the appointments made by Speaker Carlisle on the committees of the house, and with one accord they express the opinion that the democratic party has been grossly insulted by the speaker in the matter of appointments. Judge Waxem, of Texas, is the ranking democrat on the committee on rivers and harbors, and has been for years. He is the only member of the committee from the state of Texas, and is the only democrat from the whole state of Texas who has been honored with a position on any committee of importance. Judge Waxem is a man of great ability, and has been a leader in the democratic party in Texas for many years. He has been a member of the house for eight years, and has been a leader in the democratic party in Texas for many years. He has been a member of the house for eight years, and has been a leader in the democratic party in Texas for many years.

Yesterday afternoon three boys were given an examination before Justice of the Peace Ben Smith of Colorado City on a charge of arson. The boys set fire to Conners' laundry at that place, Wednesday evening, and Mr. Chapman who occupies the building came very near being smothered to death. The fire was discovered in season to prevent it from doing much damage and two of the boys were arrested on Wednesday night in order promptly to the burning of the building. The trial gave them up to the authorities yesterday morning. The justice after hearing the evidence bound the accused over to await the action of the grand jury at the next term of the district court.

The Haverly's Mastodons will be the next attraction at the opera house. They will appear Monday evening. Haverly's great minstrels receive the unstinted and unqualified indorsement of the press in whatever section the company visits. That such is deserved, everyone who has visited any entertainment ever given by them can attest. It is really the starring traveling attraction of America filling opera houses at every point to their capacity and sending away audiences delighted with the entertainments presented. This company has had a remarkable career. It has never stopped or disbanded from date of its first organization, playing the fifty weeks every year, have visited Europe three times, and never brings around the same features twice. Originality and freshness in minstrelsy, as well as in everything else, has always been Mr. Haverly's motto. This is why his entertainments are so liberally patronized by the people of all classes.
